

Coming of Age

Educating Canada's Unregulated Health Care Workers

Bridging the Gap from the Atlantic to the Pacific

February 12-13, 2004
Crowne Plaza Hotel
Ottawa, Ontario

Coming of Age – Educating Canada's Unregulated Health Care Workers will be the first national meeting of training providers for personal support workers, resident care attendants, special care aides, home support workers, health care aides, continuing care assistants and other unregulated workers in health care. The meeting will also interest employers and administrators who utilize the services of unregulated health care workers.

The keynote speaker will be Dr. Robert Buckman, a world-class expert on interpersonal communication, prolific author and television personality. Meeting participants will also interface with members of organizations undertaking national sectoral initiatives in homecare.

The agenda will include regional meetings, panel discussions and facilitated sessions organized around the following themes:

- discussion of national educational issues in homecare;
- presentation of the results of the Canadian Home Care Human Resources Study; and,
- creation of an organized national group of unregulated health care worker educators, including the initiation of a national action plan.

The meeting will commence with registration and a continental breakfast at 8:30 a.m. on February 12, and will adjourn at 4:00 p.m. on February 13.

ACCC will host a reception at the Delta Ottawa Hotel on February 12 at 5:00 p.m. An annual event, the reception enables our partners to meet the ACCC Board of Directors and Staff. All meeting participants are invited to attend, however you must RSVP.
